ISE 6664 Final Project: Report and Presentation Guidelines

ISE 6664 Affective Design and Computing -- Spring 2026 -- Dr. Alan Brooks

Deliverables

- Final presentation: Thursday, April 30, in class. 12 minutes plus 5 minutes of questions per team.
- Final report: due Saturday, May 2, 11:59 pm, via Canvas, one PDF per team.

Report requirements

The report should be 12-16 pages, double-spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins, excluding references. It must include: a problem statement grounded in affect theory from the course; related work; data and method; results; design implications; limitations; and a statement of each team member's contributions.

Grading

Component	Weight
Theoretical grounding (course concepts used correctly)	20%
Method and rigor	25%
Results and analysis	20%
Design implications	15%
Writing and organization	10%
Presentation	10%

Notes

Projects that use human-subjects data must cite the IRB protocol or approval. If you reuse data from another project, say so and describe what you added. Late reports lose 10% per day.
